

ARMAN TIGRANYAN

Concert Violinist,
Chamber Musician,
Educator

About Me

Throughout his career, Arman has showcased his exceptional talent by participating in prestigious festivals worldwide, including the Schwetzingen Festival, Bowdoin Summer Festival, Schlern Music Festival, Pont Le Voy Festival, and Courchevel Summer Festival. Arman's achievements include solo performances, awards, and scholarships, with highlights like appearing as a soloist with the Santa Barbara Symphony Orchestra, winning the Pasadena String Competition, and being the youngest recipient of the Baroness Leni Fe Bland Foundation in Santa Barbara.

armantigranyan@yahoo.de

LANGUAGE

- English (native)
- Armenian (native)
- Russian (native)
- German (fluent)
- Italian (basic)
- French (basic)

EXPERIENCE

Meta Music Academy

2019 - currently

Online Violin Lessons (worldwide)

Musikschule Victon, Hanover, Germany

2012 - 2020

Violin Teacher

Badisches KONServatorium, Karlsruhe, Germany

2009 - 2010

Substitute Violin Teacher

Concerts

1993 - currently

Concerts solo, chamber music, and with orchestras worldwide

EDUCATION

Karlsruhe Hochschule für Musik, Karlsruhe, Germany

M.Mus. (with honors), violin class of Prof. Josef Rissin 2008-2010

Artist Diploma, (with honors), violin class of Prof. Josef Rissin 2005-2008

Toulon Conservatory, France

violin class of Prof. Jean Ter-Merguerian
2002-2003

Peabody conservatory of the Johns Hopkins University, USA

B.M., violin class of Prof. Viktor Danchenko
1998-2001

Central Music School of the Moscow Conservatory, Russia

violin class of Zoya Makhtina 1987-1989

Masterclasses

with: Eric Friedman (Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, USA), Joseph de Pasquale (principal viola of the Philadelphia Orchestra), Maestro Jeffrey Tait (London, UK) and Pinchas Zukerman (Manhattan, USA), Prof. Aleksander Kramarov (Düsseldorf Conservatory, Germany) 2000-2008